This is the 13th of the 31 patterns that I will be giving on my blog over the month.

Today's pattern is a simple red and white stocking with a small amount of straight stitch. All you need to do for straight stitch is bring the needle up on one end of the stitch and take it back down at the other end, no extra bits on the way!

If you don't like the colours then by all means change them, it's your project so you should make it in colours you enjoy!

The + in the centre is the middle of the pattern, marked for your stitching ease. The black backstitched line is the seam line of the stockings should you join them into a single stocking. I'd suggest whip stitching them together wrong sides facing.
