This is the 22nd of the 31 patterns that I will be giving on my blog over the month.

Today's pattern is a pattern I saw on an illuminated manuscript (and used on a small section of my Celtic Wolf embroidery) It looks so much better when you can see more of it!

If you think it's too much stitching you could always just do the darker red stitching on a red fabric instead.

If you don't like the colours then by all means change them, it's your project so you should make it in colours you enjoy!

The + in the centre is the middle of the pattern, marked for your stitching ease. The black backstitched line is the seam line of the stockings should you join them into a single stocking. I'd suggest whip stitching them together wrong sides facing.

For more ideas on how you can use these patterns please look here:

Please do leave a message on my blog, <http://magicalquilts.blogspot.com/>, if you make this as I'd love to see the results!

This pattern was given for your own personal use on <http://magicalquilts.blogspot.com/>. You may not sell this pattern, nor may you offer kits with this pattern. You may not sell embroideries made with this pattern, it was made for charitable or personal use only.

Please do not post this pattern to other sites but refer back to the blog post. This includes sites such as Pinterest and Facebook! So for example saying "I stitched this and you can get the pattern here" with a link is allowed but saving the pattern and uploading it as a file to Facebook or Pinterest is not.

You may of course share your finished results where you like, it's just the pattern itself that may not be shared.
