This is the 27th of the 31 patterns that I will be giving on my blog over the month.

Today's pattern is a very bright and more Nordic style, though perhaps they don't use a blue quite as bright as 995. This is another pattern that you could do just the blue stitches on while using white fabric instead of all the white cross stitches.

I would suggest doing the stitches that are not a true diagonal as a straight stitch rather than a back stitch.

If you don't like the colours then by all means change them, it's your project so you should make it in colours you enjoy!

The + in the centre is the middle of the pattern, marked for your stitching ease. The black backstitched line is the seam line of the stockings should you join them into a single stocking. I'd suggest whip stitching them together wrong sides facing.
